

AGRASRI Regular Activities/Programmes

The Academy of Grassroots Studies and Research of India (AGRASRI) is organising multi-farious activities and programmes, besides its regular research studies, publications, field visit reports, exposure visits, seminars, conferences, workshops, round-table meetings and capacity building & training programmes for elected representatives of Panchayati Raj Institutions, Self-Help Group Members, Youth and Women leaders and Social Activists at the grassroots level:

Human Rights Day Celebrations (10 December Every Year):

Human Rights Day is the day in 1948 the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Human Rights Day is commemorated every year all over the world on 10th of December. It was first announced to be celebrated every year by the United Nations General Assembly on 10th of December in the year 1948. It is celebrated at this particular date annually to honor the United Nations General Assembly for declaring the human rights universally. Human rights day was officially established in the meeting of United Nations General Assembly on 4th of December in 1950.

Human rights day is the worldwide observance celebrated by the people all across the world to get the real rights for the human beings. This day is celebrated to improve the physical, social, cultural and spiritual well being and welfare of the vulnerable group of people globally.

As research organisation, the Academy of Grassroots Studies and Research of India is organising the Human Rights Day Celebrations every year on 10 December at Tirupati for sensitising the fellow citizens towards the existing human rights and its safeguards, as per the provisions of the Constitution of India.
