The Process and Selection

The Awards honour role model policy makers, administrators, exemplary leaders in respective fields, who have exhibited exceptional leadership through pursuit of excellence.

The award process is initiated with the call for Nominations through print & electronic media and social networks, besides Academy invitations through its official channels, along with Nomination Forms.

Once the Nominations are received, primary scrutiny is done by a team at the Academy of Grassroots Studies and Research of India and a List of qualified nominees is drawn out in each category, with support and assistance of Convener of Awards Jury.

A list of qualifiers in each category is submitted to the Awards Jury, along with complete details and credentials of each nominee. The Awards Jury, comprising Peers and Luminaries drawn from different segments of society, headed by Dr. Subhash C. Kashyap, eminent Constitutional expert and Former Secretary-General of Lok Sabha, New Delhi, after deliberations finally picks one Leader in each category for the Award. The Nominations will be received and finalised every year in the month of January/February, by the Jury of the Chittoor District Centenary Awards.

The Criterion for Selection of the Awardees is well thought out and detailed. It has been designed with the view that only deserving and noble candidates are short-listed for the screening process. The Nominee should be a Non-Chittoorian and residing and working in Chittoor District. He/She should have fundamental leadership values, must have shown exemplary performance and contributed towards development of his/her chosen field for the larger goal of society in general and Chittoor District/Andhra Pradesh in particular.

The nominees must have shown excellence despite challenges, have high personal values and human ethics, be innovative and supportive in his/her chosen field, should have contributed towards positive evolution of public policies and have the ability to establish balance of forces operating in his/her connected field in the district/state/nation.

The Jury decision will be final, and no body questions its decision and authority.
