

THE GRASSROOTS GOVERNANCE JOURNAL
(A Window to Understanding Village Republics of India)

---

Volume III	Number 1	January-June, 2005
Articles		Page
Rajiv Gandhi and Modern India - Dreams and Vision		1-8
Shivraj V. Patil
Empowerment of Grassroots Level Women Leaders to Monitor School Quality - Experiences in Karnataka		9-25
M.N. Usha
Micro-Credit in Haryana : Some Problems		26-31
Raj Kumar Siwach
Financial Status of Panchayati Raj Institutions - A Study in Karnataka State		32-54
N. Jayaramaiah
Grassroots Democratic Institutions in India - An Instrument of Rural Transformation		55-62
Y. Gurappa Naidu
Notes and Comments
Citizen's Charter - A Crying Need for Implementation		63-66
I.C. Srivastava, IAS (Retd.)
Dalit Women Sarpanchs and Decentralised Democracy in Haryana: Malady and Remedy		67-74
Mahi Pal
Grassroots Perception
Village Panchayat and the State - MNC Negotiations		75-88
Pradeep Narayanan
Document
A Caring Government - One Year of the UPA Government		89-110
Book Reviews
Arun C. Mehta, Elementary Education in India – Where Do We Stand, 2 Volumes, New Delhi, NIEPA, 2004		111-112
S. Subrahmanyam
Amrit Lai, Governance in India - A Theatre of the Absurd, New Delhi, Shipra Publications. 2004		113-114
D. Sundar Ram
Jaya Arunachalam, Women's Equality - A Struggle for Survival New Delhi, Gyan Publishing House, 2005		115-116
D. Sundar Ram &amp; D. Bharathi		